Learning! 100 Award Winners Being Honored at Enterprise Learning! Conference 2015

-The Top 100 Learning Organizations from Public and Private Sectors Convene to Celebrate

Corona, CA – May 4th, 2015—Today, the Elearning! Media Group announced the Learning! 100 top learning organizations for 2015. The rankings will be revealed at the awards dinner and reception on June 9th at the Hylton Center, Manassas, VA. The awards program is hosted at The Enterprise Learning! Conference (ELC), on June 8th - 10th at the Hylton Center in Manassas, VA.

“The Learning! 100 recognizes the top 100 global learning organizations for high performance. These organizations are innovative, collaborative and have a truly immersive learning culture,” reports Catherine Upton, Award Chairperson. “Organizations from 2 to 1.6 million employees are honored this year, and shows size does not matter when it comes to making a difference in the learning field.”

Celebrating 5 years, the Learning! 100 are comprised of 60 corporate enterprises and 40 public sector organizations. Previous honorees include Scripps Health, American Heart Association, Defense Acquisition University, Khan Academy, IBM, Intel, Shaw Industries, and Verizon. View previous honorees here.

The 2015 Learning! 100 Award Dinner and Reception is being hosted at the Enterprise Learning! Conference. The conference brings together learning, talent and HR executives charged with building smarter organizations to drive performance. The Learning! 100 Awards Ceremony will take place June 9th preceded by the award reception hosting all the conference attendees. The 3-day conference offers 50+ sessions, 15 Learning! 100 sessions, 10 workshops and 3 keynotes. Executives should attend Enterprise Learning!
